A Message of Dedication

If this book serves no other purpose, it at least offers, by way of this page, an opportunity to express our special appreciation of some teacher. One--who with quiet dignity and dedication--endeavors to lay a solid foundation from which we may build our steps into the world of tomorrow. Such a person, we have agreed, is Miss Ollie Fae Jackson.

With moral integrity which always becomes a teacher, Miss Jackson has skillfully taught hundreds of students typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, and journalism. From the mimeographed test to the final edition of the school paper, she has--for eleven years--made a contribution to education with the printed page.

It is in appreciation of her, and with mindfulness of her service for the benefit of others, that we wish to dedicate this 1962 PANTHER.

Recognition To Our Superintendent

This year we are very pleased to have Mr. Rayburn O. Richardson as our superintendent. Mr. Richardson originally came from Sidney, Arkansas.

He attended Arkansas Technological College for two years. After this time he received his B. S. Ed. degree at Arkansas State Teachers' College. At the University of Arkansas he earned his M. Ed. degree.

He has spent one year as a classroom teacher. Seven years were spent as principal of high schools. He was county supervisor of schools for four years. Including his one year here, Mr. Richardson has been a superintendent for thirteen years.

We are very fortunate to have this well-qualified person to head our school. We hope many more successful years will follow.

Sound Leadership

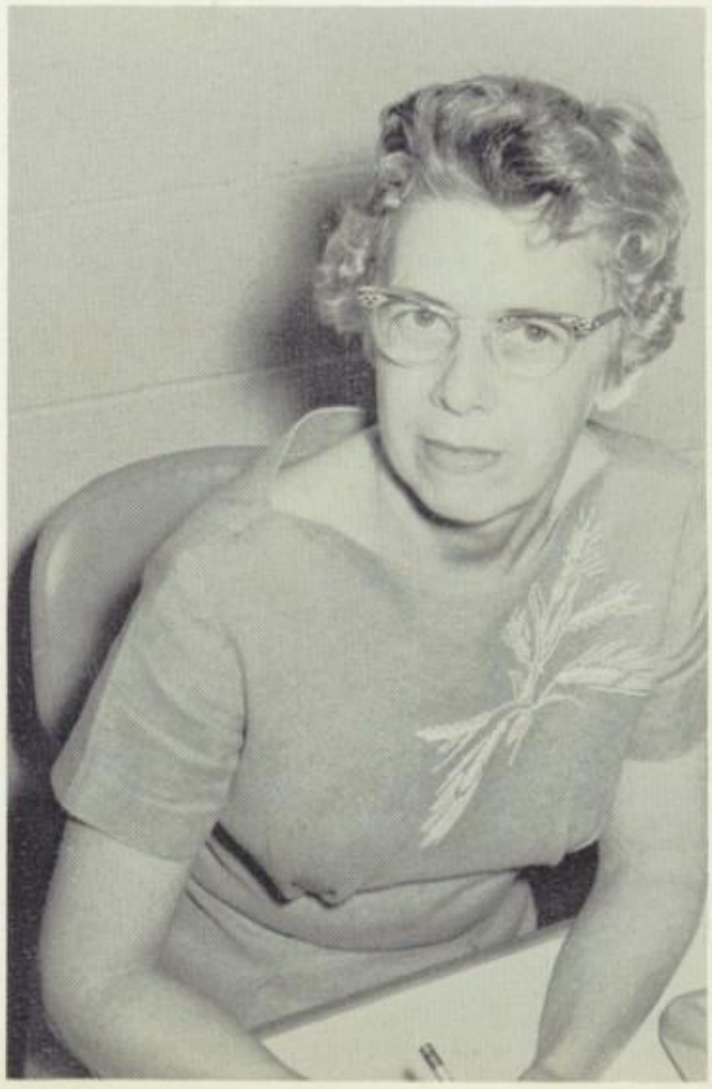
Under the purposeful guidance of MR. WALLACE SNEED, students receive assistance, encouragement, and kind supervision. "Duty brought him: true and steadfast he remains." A large measure of the school's continuous growth and success is attributed to his abilities as PRINCIPAL.



MRS. GEORGE HUTSON, High School Secretary, combines easy going geniality with precision and forethought.

SNAPS

Helen always has to be on top!

"Are they that bad, Coach?"

"Altogether now one, two, three."

"Who's introducing who?"

Camera bugs can ruin a lot of fun, can't they?

Mrs. Holly wasn't very busy during registration.

Is Ara Sue handcuffing you, Bubba?

Helen's not sure that she's getting a bargain!

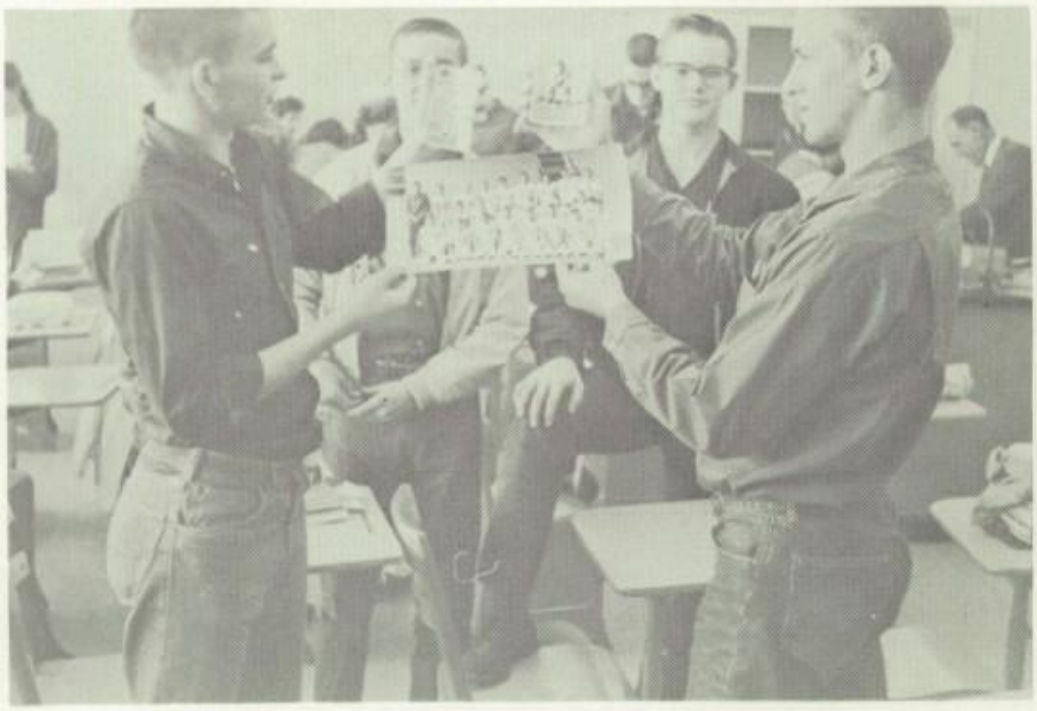
"Noble Senior"

Coach threatens them one more time before the game.

Queen Dorothy joins a happy group of Royalty.

Don't look at the camera, Joyce; look at the crowd!

So he wasn't telling a "fish story," after all!



Bill and Bubba compare football pictures.

No, it's a senior acting like a little girl.

Edna's talent won her first place at the Halloween Art Contest.

Coach at work!?!?!?!?!?

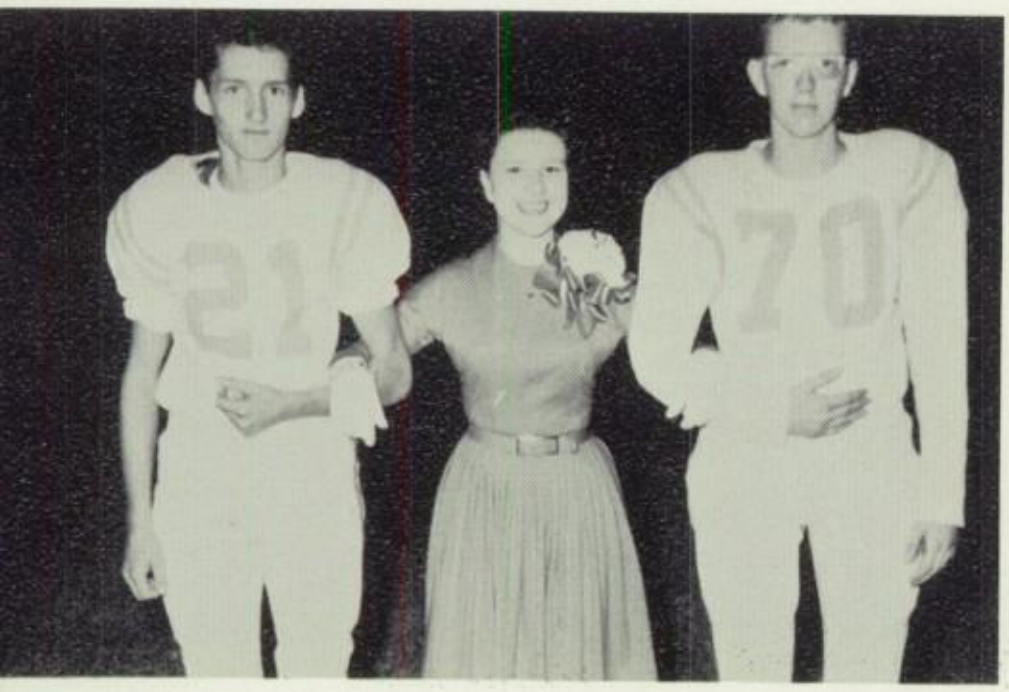
Andrea has a most attentive and interested audience.

And a new Miss H.S.H.S. is crowned.

Freshman maid Brenda Wood was escorted by Richard Edwards and Rodney Todd.

Royalty is being congratulated.

Sophomore maid Marsha McCurry was escorted by Billy Eaker and Kenneth Tipton.



Junior maid Helen Querry was escorted by Gene Clayton and Bill McClellan.

Maid of Honor Threasa Prince was escorted by Bubba Ramsey and Jim Ramsey.

The cheerleaders decorated the goal posts for all the football games.

As usual, they've got their mouths open!

Panther boosters celebrate a jubilant Homecoming.

"Who, me?!"

What IS in Paula's purse anyway?

"WHISKEY!"

"And the band played on....."

Walter and Bill were a big help until Coach happened by.

Here stand eight happy girls!

"Might as well grin and bear it!"

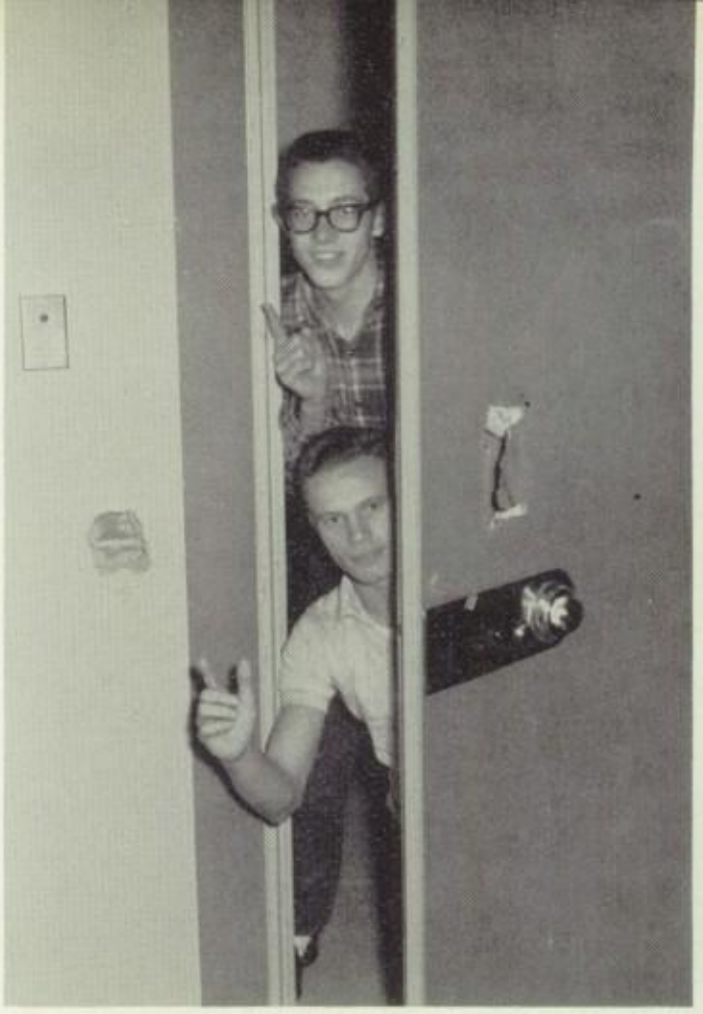
Last minute checking and primping.

Almost ready to start the big parade!

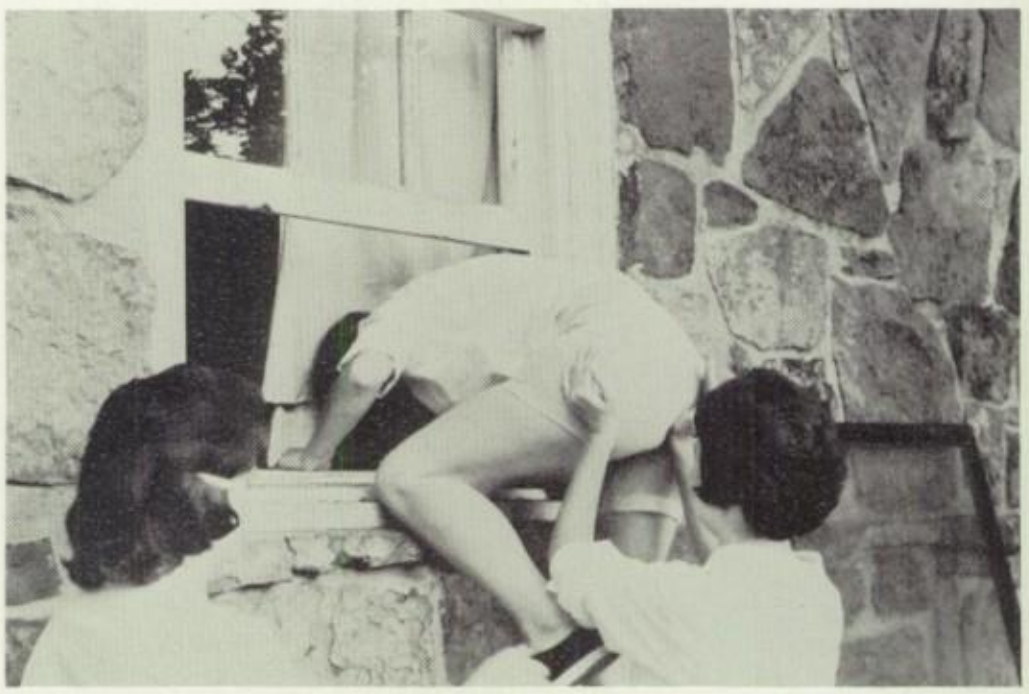
Paula is sitting pretty.

Homecoming Royalty are serenaded by Andrea.

When Juniors need money, not even steel and concrete can stop them!



The only way to find out who is the most egotistical person in Heber High is to find the biggest head in school.



Isn't there an easier way to go to band? Or is this an obstacle course?

It seems that the Seniors are the best candidates for the "Big Head" title.

Before--

--After

Many past, present, and future Seniors were present at Helen's fifth birthday party. It's too bad they didn't retain their youthful loveliness!

That wicked-looking Panther doesn't seem to scare Edna very much.

It's a good thing that we won this game, or we would have had to use that grave for boys who died of exhaustion while running 880's!

Due to superiority of Juniors, we will assume that Joe Paul is studying something!

Miss "E" practices carols with the aid of talented students.

"Grin and Bear it!"

Cook hides frantically from Coach Staggs. He's afraid Coach won't understand that he didn't know the girls were even there when he came!

Simon Legree in person!

Andrea wonders whether or not the football boys can use her in this game.

Conceited Seniors search frantically for their pictures.

Bonnie Seymore ran for Miss H.S.H.S. for the Juniors.

Joyce Foust was a Senior candidate.

Donna McFarland ran for the Freshmen.

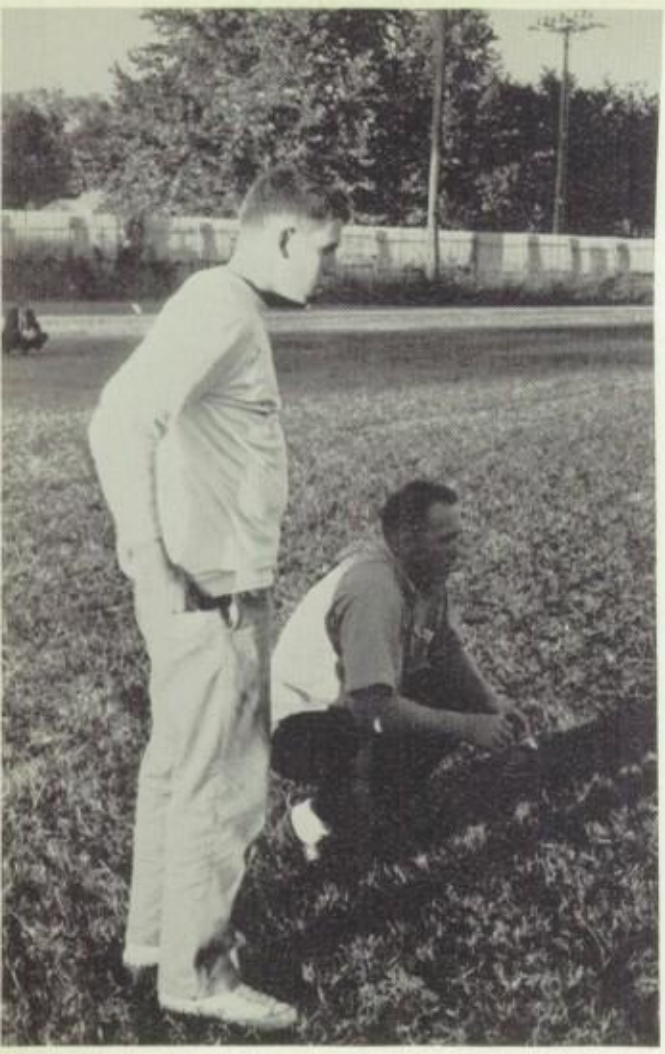
Sandra dances for judges.

Sigma Delta candidate Paulette Mitchell.

Bobsie entertains crowd.

THE TOP EIGHT!

Thereasa was chosen Second Maid.



Heads of the HARDWORKING football team!

A tornado warning turned out to be good practice for the cheerleaders.

Pat made a mistake on an annual page, so Helen put her in a corner!

There are always four or five camera hogs in the bunch.

Bill "practices" for the play. Part of the instructive literature that Seniors employ include plays and comics.

"Teachers vs. Students" (As usual!)

The Seniors work hard (?) on their play.

"Where have you been, Cook?"

"Alright, you guys, where's MY chair?"

I'll admit, she could help you a little, Linda.

"Mama's Little Helper"

"Don't try to steal one, Joe Paul, you'll get one next year!"

Coach Staggs decided to suit out for one of the games, and show the boys how to play.

Sandra has taken up the sousaphone! How on earth will she march with it?!

Our Esteemed F.F.A. President!

Cook finally picks on someone his own size.

All of Mr. Stark's duties as annual sponsor aren't unpleasant!

I told you that Coach didn't want his picture taken any more!!
